When: Sunday, July 17, 2016
Where: Camp Hi Canoe Livery near Hiram
Leaders: Paul & Lynne Whitmore

Price: $22 per person for the Canoe or Kayak
$10 for the picnic food

*RESERVATIONS REQUIRED***

HERE WE GO AGAIN!! Let's all have a fun day canoeing and eating a picnic lunch together. First we will canoe the scenic Upper Cuyahoga River. This trip is open to all ages, families and friends. The river depth is 2 to 5 feet with a current of about 2 mph. Dam-controlled releases ensure that it is always deep enough to paddle. This short trip is about 7 miles long. It begins at US 422 and ends back at Camp Hi. Our Special Hi Rise group rate is $22 per person in a Canoe or a Kayak. This presumes two people in one rental canoe or single person Kayak. Little kids in the middle are $1.50 each. Also, kids 12 and under eat for $5.

Check in with Paul between 11:00 AM and 11:30 AM at the Hi Rise Table, sign a waiver, pay your fee and leave your car keys at the desk. Get fitted for your life vests and paddles, take your cooler and board the Camp Hi bus with Paul. Two to three hours later you will be back at Camp Hi.

Don't have a partner? No problem. Rent a very stable kayak. Afterwards, we'll have burgers, dogs, chips, salads and pop in our reserved pavilion. Lynne always brings something homemade & Bob Mac cooks the burgers and dogs. Bring your own beer for discrete consumption on the river.

Kids and grandkids are welcome. A hat, sunglasses, sunscreen and something to drink are important; maybe a rain jacket just in case and gloves if you are prone to blisters. A waterproof dry bag for your wallet and camera would be a good idea too. Sandals or old tennis shoes are best in the canoe. The clothes you wear will get wet and muddy while canoeing so leave a clean change of clothes in your car. Dogs are permitted in the canoes. They love the water.
