Fall Breakfast Hike Foggy but well attended!

The club gathered on October 7th for the Fall Breakfast Hike—about 18 people attended the breakfast. The foggy weather “enhanced” the experience. We hiked after breakfast to burn off the calories we consumed. Thanks to everyone who attended and thanks to those who brought a baked treat to share! See you in the Spring at the next breakfast hike!

Race Team Clambake was a lot of fun!

Special Thanks to Elliott and Pegge Drysdale for manning the steamer and grills for the clambake vittles. Thanks to all who attended and to Rick Gzesh for organizing the event!

One Club Golf Outing on November 3rd not typical weather (thank God)

Saturday, November 3rd 26 golfers grabbed their lucky club and grabbed their lucky balls to challenge the Green Ridge Golf Course. Needless to say, after 3 days of rain the course was a little "soft". But then the sun came out and the beer wench was driving around the course in the four wheeled drive cart and all was right with the world. More details to follow...
