Hi Rise Ski & Sport Club Monthly Newsletter

Lake Tahoe 2022

Not a bad view to be seen!

Saturday February 26th, twenty-four of us caught a late afternoon flight from Cleveland to Reno, Nevada. At the airport we gathered our equipment and found the charter bus arriving just before midnight we were dropped off at our hotel, Harvey's Casino in Stateline, Nv. (The western end of the hotel is literally feet from the California border and South Lake Tahoe. Harvey's is an 18-story casino with many restaurants and amenities.

Sunday morning most of us took the short walk to the gondola for Heavenly, of course being a Sunday, the place was packed with long lines as this is the only way to get up the mountain from our location but the lines did move well and we were at the top within 30 minutes of getting in line, on the gondola with great vistas of Lake Tahoe we climbed 2,895 vertical feet passing the visitors observation deck that many non-skiers visit all year long. The gondola starts in California and passes into Nevada near the observation deck, so by going a few hundred yards west you're on the California side or heading east to Tamarack you remain in Nevada. Although busy, the snow was very good on Sunday, we skied Nevada in the morning meeting at East Peak Lodge (Elevation 8,625') for a late lunch outdoors before heading to California to get our bearings and close the lifts. Of course, you have to be careful getting back on the gondola before it closes or you have to ski to the bottom and pick up the town bus back, I don't think any of our group had to do that. About 10 of our group opted out of skiing Sunday so they explored the town including walking from the hotel to the lake and golf course that annually hosts a famous celebrity pro-am golf tournament which on television appears to have almost as many boats in the lake as fans on the course.

Every night most of us enjoyed the facilities back at Harvey's where they had an outdoor pool and hot tub (which of course was the most popular), indoors there was a gym, sauna and very hot steam room. The facilities were quite nice and used by us a lot. Eating in Tahoe and Stateline there is a large number of choices, each of the four casinos next to ours offered 5 to 10 restaurants themselves. The main road had an endless stream of places to eat and the village at the bottom of the gondola had a least a dozen so I know everyone ate well.

Lake Tahoe is one of the deepest and largest lakes in America (besides the Great Lakes) but is probably the most scenic, especially from high in the mountains on the ski slopes where you can see the full lake. 2/3 of the lake is in California and a third is located in Nevada. Water color of the lake is called Indigo-Blue.

It is the third deepest lake in the States, first founded in 1844 it was originally named Lake Bonpland, later changed to Mountain Lake and then Lake Bigler after a California Governor. Finally, around the 1930's it was changed to Tahoe, an Indian name meaning "Big Water", the name really didn't stick until 1945. The area first became popular in the 1860's, silver was discovered in nearby Virginia City causing rapid growth (a silver rush) It then gained popularity again after the 1960 Olympics at Squaw Valley (Last year renamed Palisades Tahoe) for what we know it best, winter sports but its busiest season is during the summer months with mainly visitors from San Francisco (200 miles away) and the surrounding area. The roads are overcrowded, slopes are full of bikers and boats create a rush hour atmosphere on the lake.

Most of the group skied 4 to 6 days at Heavenly but on Wednesday a few of us drove around the lake to NorthStar. Getting there we drove the western route in California (which is normally closed in the winter but very scenic) this took us around the steep cliffs of picturesque Emerald Bay as well as by many stunning overpriced houses on the cliffs and shores overlooking the lake. Near Emerald Bay we did see scorched landscape from last year's forest fires that caused evacuation of the whole city of South Lake Tahoe. The slopes at NorthStar are not as steep or challenging as Heavenly but we found more than enough to keep us occupied and having to pay attention while there. After our day on the slopes, we returned home via the eastern or Nevada side through Incline Village on the shores of Tahoe viewing many more vistas and the sun setting over the mountains.

Thursday, we headed south to Kirkwood passing the slopes of Sierra at Tahoe where last year's fires were so close, they used their snow making equipment to prevent the resort from being burnt. On the drive we also saw and smelled controlled burns of the underbrush that had been cleaned up after the close calls in the summer. Kirkwood is a resort just south of Carson Pass that is fairly large and quite challenging. When the day started, we didn't think we could see the whole mountain but a quick lunch and fast skiing allowed us to ski most of the terrain from opening lift groomers to the steep and moguls found on the "Wall". They don't have a lot of high-speed lifts here and could add a couple more to save a lot of traversing but I guess that is what makes it what it is. I am looking forward to going back here again for a few days. Both NorthStar and Kirkwood are on the Epic Pass as is Heavenly.

On our trips we normally stay in condos not a luxury casino resort hotel like Harvey's, so it is hard to get together as a group for the planned Happy Hour. The pool facilities were located on the Conference Floor where I noticed a large common area outside the conference rooms. For three hours, we enjoyed some beverages and great stories of our adventures during the week which besides skiing included some taking a cruise around Lake Tahoe and right into Emerald Bay to see the tall granite walls surrounding it. We were not bothered by the hotel but security did arrive when a non-group member started playing the piano in the area, he was asked to stop.

Very early Saturday morning our charter bus picked us up and dropped the group off at Reno airport where we flew home through Denver arriving about 3 hours late after having to change planes but why spoil a great trip by going into details.

Thanks to everyone who joined us on our trips this year, I'm currently working on next year and will announce them in the next month or two, hope to see you again next year!
