Winter Predictions

Get ready for a great ski season. According to the Farmer's Almanac and the recurring La Nina we may be in for a long and snowy winter! We may even see snow in December and into March!

Only time will tell. Check out their predictions at www.farmersalmanac.com/extended-forecast

Changes at Boston Mills, Brandywine, and Alpine Valley!

Last season was tough for skiers and ski areas as we all recovered from the pandemic. The Vail owned resorts in Ohio are expanding their hours and installing new lifts at Boston Mills and Brandywine. Check out the videos to see how they build these lifts at the Boston Mills/Brandywine Facebook page (20+ Boston Mills/ Brandywine Ski Resorts - Videos | Facebook)

The old chairs were auctioned off in August. Proceeds went to the Epic Charity Foundations.

FYI Prices for EPIC and IKON passes go up on Monday, September 5th.

Little Mountain Limited is on the Move!

Another local ski world change is the move of our favorite ski shop Little Mountain Limited (LML).

I took some time to talk to longtime Hi

Rise member Greg Maguire about the move, and here is what I learned. After many years at Points East, Little Mountain was asked to make room for Five Below. Fortunately, Greg found a new location at the former Boater's World building only a quarter mile east of his Points East store. The new freestanding store is larger and has its own parking lot. It is located at 7560 Mentor Avenue with easy in and out access. Greg founded Little Mountain Limited in 1983 after working at Ski Town in Cleveland Hts. and Medallion Ski shops. This is the fourth location for LML. Can you name all four locations (the answer is on page 3 of the newsletter)?

Greg's first love is skiing – and he still skis - so owning a ski shop comes naturally. Thanks for sharing your ski knowledge, Greg! Since LML is closed for the summer, Greg can pursue his second love, which I was surprised to learn, is sailing! He spends many hours sail racing as he crews for his friend at the Mentor Harbor Yacht Club. Greg has two grown children Max and Audrey.

Take some time to visit the new store. Good luck at your new location, Greg!

Biking in Cleveland

A best kept Cleveland secret is Slow Roll Cleveland. If you are looking to do something different this summer, try Slow Roll Cleveland. On Mondays throughout the summer peddle bikers gather at various locations throughout the City of Cleveland to ride together... slowly... thus the name Slow Roll!

A committee of dedicated volunteers plan, guide, and monitor a ten-mile ride throughout the city. They follow all safety measures necessary to keep our ridership safe while still creating a fun atmosphere for all riders. Helmets are required.

All bike rides meet at 6:00 p.m. and begin the ride at 7:00 p.m. at the locations listed here. A ride last about two hours. Ride details and locations can be found at www.slowrollcleveland.com/ Slow Roll Cleveland can also be found on Facebook.
