Planning Ahead!

Farmers call the fall season the "Hurrying Time" because they hurry to harvest their crops, prepare the soil for the spring, tend to their critters, and can fruits and vegetables for the long winter ahead.

Hi Rise is the same...well… sort of. Your board is busy planning the year ahead. Planning is led by the board. We have a lot planned, a clam bake, a golf outing supporting the race team, meeting themes, winter ski trips to Banff and Mt. Bachelor – even a breakfast hike this fall.

We need your input to be sure we are on the right track. Bob Mac, our longtime president, has written an open letter calling for your input for next year's ski trips and in a new endeavor ... a cruise to Alaska! Bob has created a survey to help us plan next year's ski trips and gauge your interest in a potential cruise to Alaska with your fellow Hi Risers. Please take time to think about it. Bob's letter is on page 2.

- Our first indoor meeting is Wednesday, September 24. Bring your free drawing ticket for attending a summer meeting at Spirits for a chance to win $100 gift certificate.
- Clambake on Saturday, September 26. See page --- for details.
- One Club Golf outing on Saturday, November 7. See page 9 for details.
- This is Hi Rise own "Hurrying Time"! Help us out. Be part of the action!
- And, it's time to renew. See page13 for a membership form.

Hi Rise Trips Survey - What do you think?

Dear Hi Risers,

Thank you for your input on our Banff trip which helped your board decide to run it next year.

Now, we're looking at securing our 2028 ski trips (Yes, this far in advance) and have what we feel is a good deal for our inaugural cruise presentation.

Skiing: We have chosen five resorts for two trips got 2028. Each area accepts the Epic Pass, and we have preliminary pricing for each location. The pricing is approximate. There is a good it could change. Our very experienced tour operator has provided us with accurate pricing as possible. We are using a $600 price point for flights to each of the locations, air costs for the 2027 ski season are selling for between $475 and $539 to these locations. Lodging pricing are actual. We have increased some by 10% for planning purposes.

We would like you to give us your thoughts on which of these locations you would be interested in going to. Please take a look at the destinations listed below. Tell us which ones you are interested in. Please email me at bobmaclauchlan@yahoo.com with your thoughts. Your comments and suggestions for other resorts are most welcomed and encouraged.

Destination	Whistler	Park City 1	Park City 2	Breckenridge	Beaver Creek 1	Beaver Creek 2	Lake Tahoe	Lake Tahoe
Price	$2,096	$2,355	$2,608	$1,015	$2,255	$2,555	$1,535	$1,997
Accommodations	Delta Condos	Thaynes Hotel	Park Station Condos	Beaver Run condos	Christie Lodge Suites	Charter Condos	Forest Suites Condos	Margaritaville Hotel

Alaska Cruise: A Hi Rise cruise is something we have been looking at for a few years and would like to offer this to our members. Here is a description for a potential cruise on the Princess Cruise line for HI Rise to Alaska. It is an example of what we could offer. We are open to your suggestions.

Please send your comments to me at bobmaclauchlan@yahoo.com.

The description for a cruise is at the right. If you have ideas for other cruises, please tell us. These prices do not include land excursions fees, trip insurance, air fare (approx. $500), hotel before and after the trip, or drink & gratuity package.

Thank you, Bob

Ski the West with Hi Rise!
There is Still Room for You

This year Hi Rise travels to the far west all the way to Oregon. Mount Bachelor is the seventh largest ski area in the nation located on the eastern flanks of Oregon's Central Cascades. It is known for light and dry snow. It is actually a dormant volcano. As with any volcano it can erupt. but unlikely to do so. The last time it erupted was 2,000 to 10,000 years ago. Since The top of the mountain has no trees, you can actually ski around the top of the mountain, circling the volcano crater. Mount Bachelor boasts 72 runs with something for everyone. The back side has top expert runs for the best skiers. For those of us who like to cruise there are plenty of intermediate blue runs. Snow boarders are treated to several terrain parks located throughout the mountain. Mount Bachelor operates 12 lifts including 7 express quads, and 56 kilometers of groomed cross-country trails. And the mountaintop is not so high at 9,065 feet. To learn more checkout the On the Snow article here or the Mt. Bachelor webpage here.

On your day off from skiing, you can find plenty to do in the picturesque town of Bend, Oregon. Choose to try snowshoeing, dog sled riding, beer tasting, wine tasting and even cider tasting. For those who like museums you can visit the Deschutes Historical Museum, or the High Desert Museum. Or, you can just relax at the Hilton's Newberry Hotel pool. To learn more about what to do in Bend, Oregon, visit the visitor bureau's website at https://visitbend.com/ . See page 12 for more information.

Mt. Bachelor is on the Ikon pass, please check the Icon webpage for the best prices Click here for information about Ikon passes. Be sure to compare the blackout dates to our trip dates of January 23 to 30, 2027. See page 11 for more lift ticket information and to register for this trip.

Hi Rise Returns to Banff
February 28, to March 6, 2026

After many years Hi Rise returns to Banff. The picturesque town of Banff is a great destination in itself with its shops and nightlife. The area famously boasts some of the best skiing and some of the longest lasting and best snow conditions in North America. FYI, it has begun to snow at Sunshine Village this week. Here are some pictures from this past Sunday! This first snow may not last until February, but is a start. For those who skied at Panorama and Kicking Horse, which are near to Banff, it snowed there this past weekend, too. The Snow Brains article tells us more about early snow in British Columbia. Click here to read the article.

Sunshine Village, August 2026

This trip takes us to three world class resorts Sunshine Village, Lake Louise, and Mount Norquay. All of these are a short desistance from our hotel, the Banff Caribou Lodge & Spa. This hotel is close to downtown Banff with its shops and only 30 minutes away from Sunshine Village Ski Area. Caribou Lodge features a restaurant pool, and spa. You'll find plenty to do on your day off from skiing. There is free bus service through the town of Banff and to each ski area.

Caribou Lodge & Spa
Banff, Alberts

Mt. Norquay has great views of the Canadian Rockies.

All three ski areas offer different ski experiences. Sunshine Village features 137 runs on 3,300 acres of skiable terrain stretched over Alberta ans British Columbia; and it has a terrain park for snow boarders. Mount Norquay is a 100-year-old ski area with a 1,650-foot vertical over 190 acres. Mount Norquay is considered the birthplace of skiing in the Canadian Rockies founded in 1926; and it is popular with the locals because of its short lift lines! Lake Louise is the most well-known and largest area of the three – 4,200 acers. It is known as the "Friendly Giant." It offers skiing across four distinct mountain faces in Alberta's Banff National Park. It has skiing for beginner, intermediate, and expert skiers from almost every chairlift.

Upcoming Dinner of the Month

Double D's Honkey Tonk & Smokehouse

At the dinner of the month on October 7th, we dine at the newly opened Double D's Honky Tonk & Smokehouse in downtown Willoughby. Double D is in the former Brim restaurant building with its two levels. The upstairs is a bar and dance hall for line dancing and country music. Downstairs you'll find a great smokehouse restaurant. The food is great. Char and I had dinner there just after their opening. The food and service were tremendous. Click here for the menu. I must tell you that our waitress was on her very first day – I think it was her first job ever. She was nervous but worked though her nervousness to get it right. We gave her a nice tip. Cleveland magazine gives it a very good review. Click here. See page 10 for sign up details.

In Case You Missed It!

Great food was enjoyed and good friends met at Scotties on Wednesday. The heat sent us inside although it wasn't much cooler!
